

Merry Christmas!

It's hard to believe that this year has flown by so quickly! It has been a busy year, and a year of many changes. Some of the things we experienced this year were:

We made the decision to live with the Nukna people, in Morobe province, PNG, where we will work over the years to learn the Nukna language and translate the Bible into it.

We spent several months in Cairns, Australia, as we awaited Nathan's birth

We are learning (a continual process!) how to be parents to two children

Christy's parents came to visit for a month and got to meet their new grandson, as well as see where we live and work in both Ukarumpa and Hamelengan!

Matt got to learn much more about computers during his time of helping out at the Computer Help Desk here in Ukarumpa

We got to experience the frustrations and joys of potty training for the first time

We've seen over and over God's faithfulness and provisions for us

It's been a great year!

The Christmas season is one of my favorite times of the year. And not just because of the music, cookie baking and fun decorations! The celebration of Jesus' birth reminds me again of how much God did for us in becoming a man and coming to earth to show us how much he loved us. This is the reason we're here.... without God's love and the salvation he provided for us, there would be no reason to be here in Papua New Guinea, working to see that people could have the Good News of God's love in their very own language!

We hope you all have a blessed Christmas.

Christy, Matt, Kaitlyn and Nathan Taylor
